

Fearfully and Wonderfully Made...

...for a Forever Family

Assemble duffle bags with clothes, hygiene items, and a Bible for foster parents to give to foster children.

Read picture books that show adoptive families either at church or in their home.

Pray for families who are fostering or adopting children and for children who need to be fostered.

Hold a meal at church or school to celebrate newly adopted children.

Listen to Y4Life podcast episodes on foster care and adoption.

Provide meals for families when they have home visits or court dates.

Host a Bible study on the blessings of adoption -- both spiritual and physical.

Celebrate the day a child was adopted into his or her family.

He predestined us for adoption as sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will.
Ephesians 1:5

