

Fearfully and Wonderfully Made ... For Life

Dr. Adam Francisco is Director of Academics at 1517. He served nearly two decades as Professor, Dean, and Assistant Provost in the Concordia University System. He earned his DPhil from the University of Oxford and has written extensively on Christian apologetics, Reformation history, and Christian-Muslim relations. He and his wife live in Wheaton, Illinois, with their four children and serve as foster parents to neglected and abused children. They are members of Bethany Lutheran Church in Naperville, and Adam serves on the board of Lutherans For Life.

